FIG. 1 shows a main part 11 of a sleeping bag for children according to the invention. It includes a bottom part 12, having a top, which is roundly cut, and a collar 13, formed as a cap, around the upper part. In the collar 13, provided a passage, having two tensioning strings 14 and 15, which meet at the top, and which can be placed into a triangular, internal pocket 16, making them inaccessible to the child. ~~The pocket 16 has a velcro 17, which can be fastened onto a counterpart 18, outside the collar 13. The~~ pocket 16 has a VELCRO® hook and loop fastener 17 which can be fastened to a counterpart VELCRO® fastener 18, outside the collar 13. The collar 13 can, by use of the tensioning strings 14 and 15, be contracted into a cap that covers a larger area of the bottom part 12, than is shown in the figure.
